Some Lonely Indo-European Fathers, Sons, and Brothers in Myth

In this presentation I will be looking at the thematics in mythological and epic stories, primarily from Celtic tradition, where a protagonist is (tragically) left without a son, father, or brother. This is essentially an attempt to put the famous "heroic father slays heroic son" story pattern into a larger narrative context.